

What happens on New Years Eve

Countdown Parties
Some people watch fireworks on New Years Eve

- ★ New Years Eve festivals are held in most towns and cities
- ★ Just before 12:00, everyone counts down from 10 to 1
- ★ At exactly 12:00, everyone yells HAPPY NEW YEAR! And the fireworks start

・New Years Eve(大晦日)・countdown(カウントダウン)・fireworks(花火)・held at/in(場所で行う)

Lesson Corner

What would you like to achieve this year?

フワリちゃんとSoli先生が新年の目標について話しているよ。
今回は「I would like to～」を使って、「～がしたい」と伝える表現を学んでいこう。
※「I would like to～」または「I'd like to～」は「I want to～」より少しいない表現だよ!

Happy New Year, Soli!

Happy New Year!

What's your goal for this year?

I would like to learn a new language.

What language would you like to learn?

I would like to learn Japanese.
If I practice every day,
I can learn Japanese quickly.
What's your goal?

I would like to learn to fly faster.
If I can fly faster, I can visit many places.

Meet the Teachers

Kelli先生と話しましょう。

Q How was your Christmas break?
My Christmas break was wonderful!
It was filled with family fun, snow days, hot chocolate and books read by the fire place. Our family really enjoys reading.

Q How do you celebrate New Year?
We ring in the new year with friends. Since we have 4 young children we normally get together with friends who also have kids. We eat delicious desserts and play games until the kids start falling asleep.

Q Do you have a New Year's Resolution?
My New Year's Resolution is to read at least 8 books throughout 2017. And to enjoy the snowy weather with my family by making snow angels, snowmen and having snowball fights.
